MICKIE SAYS

OF ALL GLAD WORDS OF TONGUE OR PEN, THE GLADDEST ARE THESE, "DEAR EDITOR: YOU WILL FIND ENCLOSED CHECK FOR THE PAPER ANOTHER YEAR. IT'S JUST LIKE A LETTER FROM HOME AND WE CAN'T DO WITHOUT IT." SLIP US THEM GLAD WORDS IN TOMORROW'S MAIL, SOMEBODY!

Jewish Sabbath.
The Jewish Sabbath starts at sunset on Friday, because the Jews, like the ancient Greeks, began their day at sunset and not at sunrise, or immediately after midnight, as we do, who follow the ancient Romans.

It is said that the prince of Wales' visit to this country under his own title and without the use of an incognito, is a practical recognition of the independence of the United States. It is somewhat belated, but the British government is to be congratulated on at last yielding gracefully to the inevitable.

An American sanitary expedition is rushing to Poland and the Baltic Russian states to combat an outbreak of typhus. America is fast becoming the hope of any afflicted part of the world. It is to America and American resources that the first look is turned and the first appeal is made.

As for the "strike" of actors, let us note that the flitting figures on the movie films never strike. They are as faithful as the slaves used to be to their masters, despite the vagrant and impossible fancies they exploit and portray.

Anybody would think by the fun we are having in this country now that we have the world by the tail and a downhill pull. And it's no use to put any handwriting on the wall, either, for the automobiles run too fast to enable one to read it.

The purchasing power of money is becoming so weak that even tightwad occasionally drop a nickel in the collection plate without groaning so that the second row of the choir can hear them.

An air passenger and delivery line is in contemplation between New York and Boston. Perhaps the day is not so far distant when the regular airplane engine humming will add its quota to the noises of civilization.

So "wrist watches for pet dogs" is the latest. However, they don't phase the dogs, and might make some perhaps equally deserving children envy the dogs.

The great trouble in general business is to reduce the overhead expense. If they manage to do it in the new transoceanic air service it ought to be a pretty cheap method of shipping.

This two and three-quarter per cent beer discussion is of interest to about two and three-quarters per cent of the United States. But they make as much noise as a majority.

ROSSFORD

By MARY SPENCER HOHL

Miss Alpha Edwards, of Hannum Ave., is in Pittsburg, Pa., called there by accident in which her aunt, Mrs. Henderson, was quite badly injured.

Mrs. O. H. Shirley and daughter, Gladys, of Perrysburg Road, are in St. Paul, Minn., the guests of Lloyd Shirley and family.

W. C. Wright, of the Rossford pharmacy, will spend the week-end with his family at Bryan.

Ira Rook, who has been manager of the Rossford Club for the past year, has resigned. He, in company with Wm. Hadnet and others, have organized to do a general real estate business, and have purchased the Henry property, now occupied by the Algyre hardware, and will soon open up an office in the building. Mr. Rook will manage the affairs of the new company.

Charles Tuller, who has been very ill for the past two weeks, is quite improved and will soon be able to resume his management of the drug store at Superior and Elm streets.

Dorville Hastings, a Rossford resident 18 years ago, but now of Montana, is the guest of the Tullers for a few days.

Henry Heinemann, of Superior Avenue, is somewhat improved, and there are slight chances now for his recovery. He has been suffering from pneumonia and typhoid fever.

Rossford has been having an epidemic of measles. Over a hundred cases have been reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Sarver, of Perrysburg, are Rossford's latest arrivals. We are pleased to have them make Rossford their home. They are occupying the Charles Burrell home on Hannum Avenue.

The club bowlers left Saturday afternoon, 60 strong, for Wyandotte, Mich., to whip the Michigan gander and returned with many scalps, as they captured all three games. While there a trip through the Ford works and a nice banquet were among the enjoyable features of the entertainment offered them.

Dr. Crasett has opened an office at Grand Rapids, Ohio. His family are still residing here.

One of our Rossford bachelors was married last Wednesday. Arthur Gallagher was united in marriage to Miss Leona Phillips, of Maumee.

Jules Mathis, Jr., will soon start the erection of a fine home on the Perrysburg road.

Mrs. Herold is driving a 1920 Reo.

The handsome apartment house, which Contractor Charles Watts is erecting for the Edward Ford Co., on Superior street, will occupy the entire space between the bank and the home of Supt. Bowers, with the exception of the Bowers' home, and upon them the $30,000 M. E. church is to be built this spring. The Terrace will be for 25 families and will be one of the most modern to be found.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Algyre and daughter, Jeanette, were at Flat Rock, Ohio, Monday, where Mr. Wyandt, Mrs. Algyre's father, was buried.

Joseph Mainz has sold his home in Riverview to George Purcell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sears and son, Marquard, are all quite ill.

Mrs. Anna Harris, who has been ill for several months, is some what improved.

TO ROSSFORD

Dear home town it some how seems That the sunlight brighter gleams, And the moonlight whiter streams On you than elsewhere.

And though you've some 5,000 souls Living here within your folds— English, Negroes, Slavs and Poles, They all for you care.

And you always make them feel Like your friendship's really real, And you give them a square deal, Oh, you're some town.

And when we treat you kind a'rough Why its really just a bluff, 'Cause we love you sure enough, 'Thoug we frown.

Dear old town we've watched you grow, For 18 years, or so, And we feel real old, you know, When we ponder.

And if you keep this growing pace, You'll be so limited for space, You'll fill all the empty place, Then where'll you wander?

Though you're no corporation limits, dear, You've a city limit on one end that's clear, So you'll have to grow to Perrysburg, I fear, But we should care.

We'll agree with anything you do, And we'll try to keep you looking good as new, We'll quit knocking and start boosting for you, too, Won't that be fair?

There's a charm about you, dear, Folks can't stay away a year, Till they're heading straight for here On the train.

And they know you're the one place On you they gaze with smiling face, But I'm filling too much space, So I'll refrain.

W. O. W. Installation

Way Camp, W. O. W. will install the newly elected officers for the coming year, on Saturday evening, January 24th, 1920. A full attendance is requested.

A baby girl arrived Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Scheider.

Furniture Polish.

This is a polish used by a cabinet maker who learned the trade: One-half pint raw linseed oil, three tablespoonfuls turpentine, two tablespoonfuls alcohol, three tablespoonfuls vinegar. Shake well before using.

Natural Barometer.

One of the simplest of nature's barometers is a spider's web. When there is a prospect of wind or rain the spider shortens the filaments by which its web is sustained and leaves it in this state as long as the weather is variable. If it elongates its threads, it is a sign of fine, calm weather.

Useful Asset.

Poet—"I sent you some verses about three weeks ago. What have you done with them?" Editor—"I'm holding them. Every little while lately I get thinking that we are not getting out as good a paper as we ought, and then I take those verses and see how much worse the sheet might be, and that makes me cheerful again!"
